Yearbook: The Home Stretch

FINAL month for purchasing the yearbook is here. The last date to order on-line to be sure your student has a copy is May 1st.

The yearbook is still being sold for $32.00

We ended the year with 98% of the students and staff in the book 3 or more times. Thank you to those who submitted photos.

I haven't forgotten about the Cotton Candy Party for the winners, but the weather has not cooperated thus far. I will keep checking for a non-humid day for this treat.

Principal Jones has, tentatively, approved a few students working with me on the yearbook next year. I am putting together some information and determining the number of students I will need and what duties they would be assigned. My basic plan includes teaching the students to use the yearbook software, working with a theme, choosing photographs that tell a story, caption writing, and working with deadlines.

Any questions can be sent to yearbook@campcreekpta.com
